

Restriction of satellite radio from offering traffic and weather:
Do not stifle competition. We love Satellite Radio, pay for the service and desire to see expanded services including local traffic and weather. Competition allows improved services brought to paying customers and we should have a choice of where we choose to tune in for our traffic and weather.

Thanks for your consideration,

James Powell